Note: For 9 to 19 year old exhibitors in the Walk, Trot, Canter divisions, they must choose between the Western Division or the Ranch Division as far as the western discipline is concerned. The Western Division is going to focus more on form for arena work and what is typical for western showing. The Ranch Division is more focused on form as related to ranch work and working cow horse shows. Choose whatever you feel your horse + rider combo will be most successful in. Both divisions can show in all English classes.

This form is due by May 1 to the:

Van Buren Youth Fair
PO Box 271
Hartford MI 49057

or emailed to: forms.vbyf@gmail.com

Note: The division you have selected on this form will determine what classes you may enter on June 15th. Your choice today is not binding, but it will help us with pre-planning. A rider can only go into a division with one equine, so each registered equine (aside from secondary animals) must be in different divisions.

For more information on classes and divisions, see the 'Horse and Pony Rules' on the YBYF website.
